CHILDREN ACT FAST. SO DO ACCIDENTS. Children are curious and put all sorts of things in their mouths. Serious harm can occur if they get their hands on laundry packets. Look for ACI's new safety video set to launch during National Poison Prevention Week to learn how to protect children from accidents in the home.

A CLEAN HOUSE IN NO TIME. While we may get extra sunlight with Daylight Savings Time, we lose an hour out of our day. Here are several quick spring-cleaning tips that will help you recover that lost time. (And keep your home in great shape!)

GO BEYOND GREEN TO BE CLEAN. ACI is "Going Beyond Green to be Clean" this St. Patrick's Day (and every day, really.) Because keeping your hands clean is not a matter of luck – it's simple hygiene. Click here to download a fun coloring activity for the littlest leprechauns!

CELEBRATE WORLD WATER DAY IN THE KITCHEN. World Water Day is coming up, and what better way to celebrate than with a reminder of how to save water while washing dishes. Check out these tips; they'll also save you time and money.

PROVIDING A HELPING HAND. We're proud to once again take part in a Clean the World's ONE Project event. ACI members took time during our annual convention to assemble hygiene kits that will be distributed to communities in need. Learn more about our ONE Project event and how you can help.

"2 THUMBS UP FOR HEALTHY HANDS" from Dorsett Shoals Elementary School earns the 2014 National Award for ACI & CDC sponsored Healthy Schools, Healthy People, It's a SNAP Program. The team created fun activities and hands-on learning for all students in Douglas, Georgia to reduce absences.
