Everyone knows that germs can cause illness. But did you also know that your unwashed hands could add up to lots of germs — and illnesses — for your family . . . friends . . . neighbors . . . and even strangers? And remember: Soap and water are the tried-and-true way to clean hands. But if they're not available — use an alcohol-based wipe or hand gel!